

Dr Stefanie Schulz-Große

senior associate

Career

Studied law in Bochum. First state examination in 2012, second state examination in 2019. Legal traineeship at the Regional Court of Bochum, with stations at, among others, the Scientific Services of the German Bundestag, a major international law firm in Düsseldorf and the Federation of German Industries (BDI) in Berlin with a focus on data protection law. From 2012 to 2018 research assistant at the Chair of Public Law and European Law of Prof. Dr. Wolfram Cremer at the Ruhr University in Bochum. Doctorate in 2018.

2019 joined the firm.

Practice

data protection law

Advising and acting as counsel for national and multinational enterprises, institutions and associations in data protection issues, in particular in the design of business processes and application software in conformity with data protection law; acting as counsel for companies in proceedings before data protection supervisory authorities and administrative courts; advising federal authorities in connection with digitisation projects.

Publications

Publications on data protection, constitutional and school law.

Languages

German, English

Dr Stefanie Schulz-Große
Berlin
T +49 30 885665-248
F +49 30 885665-99
schulz-grosse@redeker.de Assistance:
Laureen Pempel